

You are invited to showcase your organization's products and services at the 11th Annual TCOM/CANS Conference!

Please join the John Praed Foundation, as we plan for the 11th Annual TCOM (Transformational Collaborative Outcome Management)/CANS (Child and Adolescent Needs and Strengths Conference). This year's conference will be held on November 4-6, 2015 in Seattle at the Motif Seattle Hotel.

WHO ATTENDS THIS CONFERENCE?

This collaborative event is a nationwide multi-disciplinary gathering in the fields of education, public mental health, child welfare and youth justice. It brings together:

- New and experienced Child Welfare Staff
- Supervisors
- Resource Development Staff
- Case Managers
- Private Providers
- Research and Evaluation Professionals
- Policy Makers
- Attorneys
- Mental Health Professionals
- Law and Court Professionals
- Community Volunteers and Family Advocates
- Administrators

WHY SHOULD YOU PARTICIPATE?

The professionals attending this conference represent almost every sector of education, public mental health (adults and children), child welfare and youth justice. They are constantly striving to improve service provision through innovative products and services that help their organizations enhance the quality and effectiveness of services for children and families. As an exhibitor and/or sponsor you will:

- Enjoy targeted networking opportunities with a diverse audience of over 300 conference attendees
- Generate new business for your organization
- Increase visibility for your products, services, and programs
- Have a chance to reconnect with current and past customers
- Demonstrate your organization's leadership and commitment to supporting those who provide services in schools, public mental health, child welfare and youth justice.
